

By easy and pleasant stages we passed over the main highway from Salt Lake to Dixie, as far as Cedar City, 258 miles, carrying briefly at Provo, Springville, Payson, Salt Creek, Fillmore (the old Capital of the Territory), Beaver and Parowan. These latter constituting the main plains of the south, are of considerable size and all bear unmistakable evidences of thrift and prosperity. Interspersed between these are numerous other settlements of less note, in point of numbers, but any and all furnishing agreeable stopping places for the weary emigrant. At Cedar our course left the main territorial road to the cotton country and we bore off to the south west along the highway to San Bernardino, California, via the noted Mountain Meadows. At Cedar we ascertained that there were two roads about equally lengthy, either of which would bear us safely to our destination, viz: Meadow Valley. One of these roads bore west from Cedar, via Iron and Antelope Springs, uniting with the other at the mouth of Soap Creek. The other traverses the mountains, and passing Little and Big "Painter" Creek settlements, passes through Mountain Meadows. Being desirous of visiting the spot of the terrible massacre in September, 1857, we chose the latter.

The "Meadows" is a most charming series of little valleys, located among the mountains;—their verdure presents an agreeable contrast to the rocky and barren scenes by which they are on all sides surrounded. As we attained the summit between Painter (more properly Panther) Creek and the Meadow Springs, the scene presented to view, was charming indeed. Around, lay the high peaks of frowning mountains which had looked down, seven years ago, upon the horrid butchery which there took place, as imperturbably as the wretches who then and there bathed their hands in the innocent blood of one hundred and eighteen helpless emigrants. Before us lay the spot where the butchery was consummated; calmly as a stream of childhood, slept in beauty in its robes of living green, the lovely vale! The Sun was just passing behind the western verge of the mountain, as we reined up to contemplate the scene, and while we paused upon the mountain height, bathed in the sun light, a thunder shower passed over the lower end of the valley, and a glorious rainbow mounted up to Heaven, one point apparently resting on the apex of the rude monument piously erected a few days before, above the gathered bones of the hapless victims, while the other was lost among the clouds. That silent yet gorgeous bow, emblem of promise and future hope, seemed thus appealing to the angels above for vengeance, while the weeping cloud dropped gently down on the green graves the very tear-drops of Heaven itself. It was a sublime sight, and we passed stricken with awe at the solemn view, and breathed a prayer for the slaughtered innocents. Passing down into the meadows, we found them to be about five miles in length—northerly and southerly—by from one to two miles in breadth—the whole valley covered with Springtime verdure. The California road enters near the northern end, where are found several large springs of pure wholesome water, which runs through the canon to the north ward. At the lower end of the valley is another large spring, near which the emigrants were camped on the ill-fated day of the massacre. Between the two, perhaps half way, a gentle elevation marks the rim of the Great Basin, from either side of which the waters flow to the north or the south—the one emptying eventually into the Great Salt Lake, or sinking in the arid deserts; the other coursing on to the Colorado, and thence to the Pacific Ocean. At the lower spring, about 500 yards from the canon, the party of emigrants—numbering at least 118 souls, men, women, and suckling babes—camped on the 4th of September, 1857. On the 5th they were attacked by Indians and murderous whites, and manfully withstood every assault for five days. At the end of this time, by heartless treachery, the men were induced to lay down their arms and march out to their improvised fort, under promise of protection. They had proceeded about a mile and a half, when they were again set upon by their miscreant foes and ruthlessly slaughtered. Seven years have passed since the ages of two months and seven years, were spared, and eventually recovered by the officers of the government the year later. This was swept from earth, by heartless massacre, one of the richest and most sumptuous parties of emigrants, which ever passed through Utah. We visited the spot of the massacre. A few days previously, Capt. Phipps with Co. M, 2d Cav. C.V. had passed through, and finding the monument erected by Gen. Johnston's command in 1858, had been torn down and strewed about far and near, the command paused two days, gathered up the scattered bones for re-interment, and erected a handsome and durable monument of cobble stones on the spot where the emigrants had been encamped and were first attacked. A description of this monument has already been published in the VEDETTE, and we trust that no ruthless vandal hand will again be permitted to disturb the sacred resting place of those who sleep beneath the rude, but appropriate sepulchre. On the eastern side of the cross, which crowns the apex are inscribed these words: "Vengeance is mine, saith the Lord, and I will repay." On the reverse, "Erected by the officers and men of Co. M, 2d Cav. C.V., May 24th and 25th, 1864." Throughout the southern settlements we heard much of the complicity of certain parties in this awful massacre, but we will not advert to these reports which have a general credence among the Mormon settlers themselves, who freely point out by name the guilty actors. We leave them to their own consciences, trusting that the scriptural motto emblazoned on the monumental cross, will find ample and full vindication hereafter.

WHEREABOUTS OF THE COMPANIES OF THE COMMAND IN UTAH.—As an item of interest to the relatives and friends of officers and enlisted men in this command, we publish the present whereabouts of the different companies of the 3d Infantry and 2d Cavalry, C.V. Companies A, C, D, G, K and F, 3d Infantry, C.V. are at Camp Douglas. Company I, at Fort Bridger; Companies B and E, at Fort Ruby, Nevada Territory, and Company H, at Camp Connor, Idaho Territory. Companies A and M, 2d Cavalry, C.V. are on expeditions south—the latter as far as Fort Mojave, and both these Companies are soon expected back. Company K, is encamped at the crossing of Raft river on Sublette's cut-off, north. Company H, is at Camp Conness, and Company L, is now encamped at the base of the Oquirrh Mountains, west. Company A, 1st Cavalry, Nevada Territory Volunteers, is at Camp Conness, U.T. and Company B, of the same regiment, in the Utah valley, east from here.

FOURTH OF JULY BALLS.—Of these there will be two at Camp Douglas, on the evening of the 4th—the Grand Anniversary Ball already announced in our columns; and the Independence Ball, which latter is gotten up under the auspices of John W. Gilder-sleeve, and Samuel O. Goodaker, as Reception Committee; J. E. Summers, Jas. S. Warren and John Cullen as Floor Committee, and of G. W. Coover, Isadore Morris and P. Dooley as Supper Committee. Thus it will be seen that the soldiers are making every provision in their power to enable Camp residents and others to enjoy the festive occasion, nor do we for a moment doubt that they will be entirely successful.

MUSTER AND INSPECTION.—The troops at Camp Douglas, U.T. will be mustered and reviewed to-day at 9 o'clock, a.m., by Col. Rob't Pollock, Com'd Post. As usual, a number of the citizens and transient residents of the city will visit the Camp for the purpose of witnessing the spectacle.

CRICKET.—It will be seen by an announcement in another column, that a match will be played between the young and the old members of the Deseret Union Cricket Club, on the ensuing 4th of July. Wickets will be pitched on the usual ground, about half past 8 o'clock, a.m.

Gen. McDowell's Delay.—The delay in the arrival of Gen. McDowell at San Francisco, accounted for by the fact of his being passenger by the Golden Age, which is now on its way to San Francisco, fifteen days over her regular time—and considerable apprehension felt for her safety. She may, however, have broken a shaft and put into some small port of harbor for the purpose of repairing the injury. The American, the latest steamer expected, and docked at San Francisco, with dispatches bringing news of her. It will be remembered that Gen. McDowell left New York on the 18th of May—at least such was the telegraphic report.

Certificate of Incorporation of the Bank of California.—The appended certificate of incorporation was filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office. The formation of the new bank is the result of the dissolution of the banking firm of Donohoe, Ralston & Co., which takes place on the 1st of July. Mr. Donohoe will continue in the banking business, in connection with Mr. Eugene Kelly, of New York, and will occupy the new house located at the corner of Montgomery and Sacramento streets.

Messrs. Ralston & Fretz, the other two partners, will continue the banking business at the old stand, corner of Washington and Battery streets, and associate with them the gentlemen whose names are attached to the certificate of incorporation, in the same business, under the title of "The Bank of California." The capital of this new banking enterprise is two million dollars of paid-up cash in United States gold coin, and we certify that we have associated ourselves together, and desire to form a company for the purpose of engaging in the business of banking, and that we desire to incorporate the same under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled "an Act to provide for the formation of corporations for certain purposes," approved April 14th, in the year of our Lord 1853, and all acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, and we certify

First—That the corporate name of the Company shall be "The Bank of California;" Second—That the objects for which the Company is formed are to engage in and carry on the business of banking to such an extent, and in all such branches as may legally be done under the Constitution and laws of the State of California; Third—That the amount of its capital stock shall be two millions of dollars, with the right to increase the same to five millions of dollars, and the time of its existence fifty years; Fourth—That the number of shares of which the stock shall consist shall be twenty thousand, of one hundred dollars each; Fifth—That there shall be eleven trustees, that is to say, D. O. Mills, William C. Ralston, J. B. Thomas, Louis McLane, O. F. Giffin, John O. Earl, Thomas Belt, Herman Michels, A. J. Pope, Wm. Norris, and James Whitney, jr., who shall manage the concerns of the Company for the first three months; Sixth—That the principal place of business of the Company is to be located at the city and county of San Francisco, in the State of California.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 12th day of May, 1864.
D. O. Mills, W. C. Ralston, J. B. Thomas, A. J. Pope, O. F. Giffin, John O. Earl, J. Whitney, jr., William Norris, Herman Michels, A. B. McCreery, Moses Ellis, R. M. Jessup, R. S. Fretz, Wm. E. Barron, Thomas Bell, H. F. Testhemacher, George H. Howard, Louis McLane, Samuel Knight, A. C. Henry, William Alvord, J. C. Wimmerding.

A WOUNDED MAN DESIROUS OF WHIPPING A SECESSIONIST.—On Tuesday night, as four Veteran Reserve men were carrying a wounded soldier on a stretcher from the boat to the hospital in Washington—his wounds being of such a nature that it was deemed necessary to carry him in that manner—an individual of secesh proclivities gave pretty free vent to his sentiments, addressing his language to the soldier. The wounded man, who it was thought was dying, aroused by the fellow's taunts, to the surprise of his supporters, drew the blanket (with which he was covered) from his face, and said: "Let me down, boys, and give that Copperhead a thrashing!" which remark the man heard, and he immediately skedaddled; the Reserves at the same time showing a disposition to follow up the suggestion.

OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.
[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION-VEGETA.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25th.—The Golden Age is still unheard from. The underwriters are charging 25 to 30 per cent. for insurance against a total loss on her cargo. The American due in day, is expected to bring news of her.

Transactions in trade the past week are remarkably quiet. Sugar and barley are coming in more freely; mining stocks are tumbling again; 145-foot Gould & Curry sold today at $2,400. No general news.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24th.—The U. S. steamer Saranac starts this evening on a cruise in search of the Golden Age.

Mining stocks lower than ever; 116-foot Gould & Curry changed hands today at prices ranging from $2,000 to $1,860. The cause of this fall is alleged to be the necessity of adopting a new plan of working.

Gen. Wright publishes a farewell address to the citizens of the Pacific coast, in anticipation of Gen. McDowell's arrival to supersede him. He says he has pursued such a policy as he thought best calculated to preserve peace on this coast.

Dr. Bellows addressed a meeting at Marysville, when $2,500 in gold was contributed, and a subscription is being made for a much larger amount.

Special Notice.

MR. THOMAS GATES is the authorized Agent for the Daily Union-Vegeta in Idaho Territory. All orders for advertising, subscription and work, left with him will be promptly attended to.

The Eight Days Battle in Virginia—A Contest Without a Parallel.

The fighting in Virginia during the past week is destined to form one of the most memorable incidents in the annals of human warfare. The world never saw anything like it. All other contests seem tame and flat beside it. It stands out in dreadful prominence, unique, unprecedented, unparalleled.

Most of the great battles of history have been of comparatively short duration. Even those upon the issue of which the fate of empires has turned, have been decided within the compass of a single day. The battle of Austerlitz was fought and finished between sunrise and sunset. The battle of Waterloo commenced at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and closed before dark. The battle of Marengo was an afternoon job. The battle of Solferino embraced only sixteen hours between the firing of the first gun and the final rout of the Austrians.

But here we have two days of almost continuous fighting! A respectable sized battle on Wednesday afternoon; fighting all day Thursday; fighting Friday until midnight; fighting lightly Saturday morning and fighting fiercely Saturday night; fighting desperately the greater part of Sunday; fighting by dribbles on Monday, and the bloodiest battle of the war on Tuesday! And yet no decisive victory achieved; and so far, at least as we are concerned, no signs of flagging. Our brave fellows still enthusiastic—still eager for the fray—still determined to press on until the foe has been finally routed or destroyed. Was such courage, such pluck, such unflinching resolve, such constancy of purpose ever witnessed since the world began?

Then as regards the losses! The most sanguinary conflicts that history records fall short, with one or two exceptions, of the terrible aggregate of the results of the bloody work of the past few days. At Solferino the French lost 12,000, the Sardinians 5,000, and the Austrians 20,000. At Marengo the total loss on both sides did not exceed 14,000. At Waterloo the aggregate loss on both sides was not over 35,000. But in the series of battles which have been raging in Virginia during the few days past, our own loss is reported at above 30,000, while that of the enemy is estimated even larger! We can recall only one instance in modern wars where the losses were so heavy. At the battle of Leipsic the French had 60,000 and the allies 50,000 men placed hors du combat; but then all Europe was engaged, and had a three days tussle of it. Albany Evening Journal.

"WE COPPERHEADS."—The Rochester Democrat says: "When the news of the terrible fighting of the armies in Virginia, about the Old Wilderness, began to come in, and all accounts seemed to show that Grant was driving Lee before him, a notorious Copperhead stepped forth and offered to bet $500 that we were whipped! A broad-shouldered double-fisted fellow, who had fought one campaign under the old flag, stepped up to him and asked, with something of the old battle fire in his eyes, 'Tell me, sir, whom you mean by 'we'?' The Copperhead quailed, and replied, 'Why, Gen. Lee and us Copperheads, of course!'"

We can bid poverty welcome if it is considerate enough not come at too late a time.

He who finds pleasure in vice, and pain in virtue, is a novice both in one and the other.

A good many of our people will generally "take a pull" without waiting to have their ears pulled.

ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.

This valuable preparation containing a highly concentrated form of the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies, for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic it will be found invaluable in all cases recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for which it imparts to the system an glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the system that so frequently accompanies that period.

It gives immediate relief to nervous prostration, whether in a railroad car, or by sea sickness or other causes.

It is also valuable as an external application for rheumatism, neuralgia, etc.

Ask for Redington & Co.'s Essence of Jamaica Ginger, as none other is pure and reliable.

By-Laws of Montana Mining District

At a meeting of the miners of Montana Mining District, held on the 10th of March, 1864, Mr. Leander J. Whitaker was called to the Chair, and Henry W. Walker appointed Secretary.

The Chairman stated that the object of the meeting were to create a new Mining District within the limits of Idaho Territory; elect a Recorder and make such By-Laws as might be deemed necessary for the Government of the District.

Leander J. Whitaker, Henry W. Walker, and Jos. Whitaker, Jr., were appointed a Committee to draft By-Laws, which Committee having reported, the following were unanimously adopted:

ARTICLE 1st. This district shall include that portion of territory lying and bounded as follows: It shall commence at the crossing of Raft river on Sublett's road, running north 25 miles, thence east 40 miles, thence south 40 miles, thence west 40 miles, thence north to the place of beginning. The name to be known as the Montana Mining District.

ARTICLE 2nd. The extent of a claim on any mineral vein shall be two hundred (200) feet along the lode, with a depth of four hundred (400) feet on each side the lode, including all its dips, angles, spurs, offshoots, variations, etc. The discoverer and locator shall be entitled to one share extra, by virtue of discovery.

ARTICLE 3rd. No person shall hold more than one claim by location on any one vein; by purchase any number of claims may be held.

ARTICLE 4th. Each company shall do one faithful day's work on their claim each month; on a failure to do so, such claim or claims will be subject to re-location; provided, however, that should the company be prevented from working by local insurrection or rebellion, their claims shall not be forfeited; and provided further, that no claim belonging to a soldier shall be subject to re-location until six months shall have elapsed after peace shall be declared in relation to the present rebellion.

ARTICLE 5th. Work done, or caused to be done by the owners in any tunnel, cut, shaft, water-ditch or privilege, in good faith for the benefit of any claim, shall be considered as done on the claim owned by said person or company.

ARTICLE 6th. All claims must be recorded within twenty-five days after location shall have been posted thereon; but a notice filed for record in the Recorder's office, shall be considered equivalent to a record.

ARTICLE 7th. Whenever three hundred (300) dollars shall have been expended upon the claims of any company in this District, the ground so claimed by said company shall be deemed as belonging in fee to the owners and their assigns, and the same shall not be subject to re-location by other parties ever after, except by an acknowledged abandonment of the ground by the company, which shall be so construed after said ground shall have lain idle for one year, and except in cases where claims are in litigation.

ARTICLE 8th. All voters in this district must be owners of claims in the district.

ARTICLE 9th. There shall be a Recorder chosen from among the miners of the District, who shall hold his office during a term of one year, unless a successor be duly elected, which can only be done by a majority of the legal voters present at a meeting for that purpose.

ARTICLE 10th. All meetings for the purpose of election, or changing these laws, must be called by posting written notices in at least three public places in the District, or by publishing the same in some newspaper, printed in the Territory, said publication to be made by the Recorder, in either case, during at least twenty (20) days previous to such meeting, stating the object thereof.

ARTICLE 11th. The Recorder shall record all claims presented for that purpose, and be entitled to one dollar for each share; provided, that it shall not be lawful for him to record any claim in conflict with a prior location. He shall endorse on all notices placed on file in his office, the exact time of presentation for record. It shall be his duty (if required by the locator) to furnish each share holder with a certificate of his claim, attested by the seal of his office, for each of which he shall be entitled to receive the sum of one ($1) dollar. Before recording any claim, he shall satisfy himself that no rights are infringed.

ARTICLE 12th. All examinations of records shall be made in the presence of the Recorder or his deputy. When relieved, the Recorder shall turn over to his successor all books and papers pertaining to his office. He shall have a seal, and attest all acknowledgments and certificates made by him. Provided, That he may use his private seal until the proper seal of office shall be procured.

ARTICLE 13th. All records and copies thereof, of properly certified, shall be legal evidence of their contents in all Courts in this Territory. On motion, Henry W. Walker was elected Recorder for one year from date. On motion, the meeting was adjourned sine die.

L. J. WHITAKER, Chairman.
H. W. WALKER, Secretary.
